

The English Speaking Church of Turin

What?

The English Speaking Church of Turin is an Interdenominational Congregation which meets in the Waldensian Church in central Turin, Italy. It benefits from the support of the Union of Methodist and Waldensian Churches in Italy and of the Church of Scotland.

We are a small, diverse congregation, originating from countless countries across the world. We unite together each Sunday for worship in English and organise occasional fellowship and fund raising activities, such as our annual book fair.

We are delighted to welcome you to join us for worship, while you are visiting Turin or if you are here to stay!

When?

Our congregation meets for worship every Sunday morning at 10.30am.

Following the service there is a time to chat and drink coffee together. The first Sunday of each month is a communion service and we have an occasional bible study group.

Where?

We meet in a room at the back of the main Waldensian Church in Turin. Entrance is just off Corso Vittorio Emanuele II, via the gate on Via Principe Tommaso, 1.

Various bus lines stop close by: 1, 9, 15, 18, 34, 35, 45, 52, 61, 67. The church is 3 minutes walk from the main railway station of Turin - Porta Nuova, which is served by the Metro, the national railway and the bus lines: 4, 11, 12, 33, 58, 63, 64. Download a public transport map here: www.comune.torino.it/gtt/en/maps/

There is an underground car park in Piazza Madama Cristina and some on-street parking available in the vicinity of the church.

During our services, the gate should be open. If not, press the buzzer by the gate. Head down the ramp and the entrance is on the left hand side.
